PROPERTY DETAILS

Ever walked into a home and instantly felt like there's more to discover? This one pulls you in with sun-soaked spaces, bold design touches, and windows that frame jaw-dropping mountain views you'll never get tired of. The living area feels like an artful retreat, the dining space flows under a statement light that sparks conversation, and the sleek kitchen quietly shows off with clean finishes and smart details. Then there's that moment—you glance outside—and the endless layers of forest and peaks completely steal your attention. Located on Richmond Hill in Conifer, you're surrounded by some of Colorado's best outdoor escapes. Spend weekends exploring Staunton State Park, hiking through Pike National Forest, or taking scenic drives along Highway 285. You're also just a short trip to Evergreen Lake, local shops, and cozy dining spots—plus an easy commute into Denver when needed. If you've been craving mountain views, modern style, and a place that feels like a getaway every day—this might be it. Come steal it for yourself before someone else does. Showings start 5/2/2026.
